

Disclaimer

No statement on this website shall be construed as offering medical advice or suggestion as advice. No statement, product, assessment or tool offered by and from Sozo Complete is to take the place of your medical doctor. No product or tool used by Sozo Complete is to be considered or construed for diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of any disease. We are not medical doctors and cannot take you off any medicine. You are to consult with your doctor if you have any concerns over any medicine you are taking.

- “Us”, “We”, “You” and/or “Our” in this disclosure and disclaimer refers collectively to all persons associated with Sozo Complete and its assumed trade names including, but not limited to, its shareholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants, independent contractors, agents, assigns, “I”, “My” and/or “Me” refers to anyone viewing or otherwise accessing the contents of this website.
- We are not Medical Doctors (MDs). We are non-medical specialists with various fields of training, certifications, and traditional and non-traditional type degrees who use non-invasive natural protocols such as vitamins, minerals, herbs and dietary changes to create a healthy environment in the body.
- I understand that I should continue to see any medical doctors I am currently under the care of, and that any prescription medication should not be altered without first consulting the medical doctor who prescribed it. Should I choose to discontinue any such care or treatment against the advice of or without consulting with my medical doctors, I agree to indemnify and hold Sozo harmless from any and all consequences of my actions.
- I understand that I may be referred to another member of the Wellness team to seek further care if deemed necessary.
- Any visit or consultation you agree to with Sozo is based on the belief that the body has a natural ability to heal itself if given an appropriate internal and external healing environment and a proper amount of time.
- Your body may ask for Balancers and supplements that create a healthy balance in the body and they may be discussed. This is not intended to be interpreted as a substitute for a licensed physician’s treatment.
- Nothing said, done, typed, printed or reproduced by us is intended to diagnose, treat, prevent or cure any disease or health condition, nor is it intended to prescribe any substance, dietary or supplementation plan, nor take the place of a licensed physician.

- Should I choose to implement any part or all of the suggestions or recommendations discussed, I acknowledge I am doing so of my own free will and choose to do so based on the education I have received.
- I agree that all above statements also refer to my minor children, if applicable.
- I am not, on this visit or any prior or subsequent visit, acting as an agent for the federal, state, county, local agencies, news media, the American Medical Association or any other public or private agency on a mission of entrapment or investigation.

What can I expect from my experience?

The interface between your body and ZYTO's biocommunication software is the FDA registered hand cradle. Simply rest your hand on the contacts while the computer sends digital stimulus and gathers your response data. The scan takes a few minutes to complete and is safe for adults and children.

- I have read the above information and agree to it completely.
